POLICY ON FOOD HYGIENE

Including the Early Years Foundation Stage

[This policy forms one of a suite of policies at Walthamstow Hall for safeguarding children]

Statutory Registration

Walthamstow Hall is registered with the Kent Local Authority as a “food business” within the meaning of the regulations. We are, therefore, inspected at regular intervals by the local Environmental Health Officer.

Health and Safety

We recognise that compliance with health and safety is fundamental to any catering operation. We attach the highest importance to ensuring that we are compliant with EU and UK legislation at all times. The School’s catering is carried out in-house by our Chefs and their teams at both the Junior and Senior sites. They each report to the Catering Manager and in turn to the Bursar who has ultimate responsibility for the catering function. The Chefs have the appropriate level of training for catering, including health and safety.

EYFS Procedures

In the EYFS the pupils are used to a routine of washing their hands before and after eating their break time snacks and lunch. They are taught how to carefully and thoroughly wash their hands. The development of good hygiene is reinforced through regular reminders from staff and through posters (text and pictures) in the EYFS classroom environment.

The cleanliness of all food equipment, including plates and cutlery for the dining hall and classroom use, is the responsibility of the catering staff. The classroom staff take responsibility for setting out and clearing away break time snacks in the classrooms. Plates are always used and food is kept covered until needed. Any uneaten break time snacks are returned to the school kitchen.

The tables at which girls sit to eat are thoroughly cleaned before and after eating – in the hall this is done by the catering staff; in the classroom it is done by the classroom assistants.

This policy has regard to the guidance issued by the Secretary of State.

Walthamstow Hall policies are approved, ratified and reviewed regularly by the Governing Body in the light of statutory requirements.
