Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or their parent) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification they are following, the School encourages them to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint could be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the Head of Centre.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or their parent) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint:

- A formal complaint must be made in writing to the Head of Centre.

How a formal complaint is investigated:

- The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant in writing.

Appeals:

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal to the Governing Body can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by email to ChairofGovernors@whall.school.
- Emails received will be logged and acknowledged.
- The appeal will be referred to a Governing Body sub-committee for consideration comprising three members.
- The Chair of the Governing Body (or Committee) will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in writing within 7 working days.

Walthamstow Hall policies are approved, ratified and reviewed regularly by the Governing Body in the light of statutory requirements.
